Additional Service to Hoonah

Dear Valued Customer,

Due to the lack of ferry service we will be providing an additional sailing to Hoonah. Our barge will depart from Juneau on Tuesday, February 25. We will also be accepting shipments originating in Seattle and other locations for this sailing.

For shipments originating in Seattle:

We will be accepting shipments destined for Hoonah on Voyage S0081. Cargo cutoff for Less-than-container (LCL) and Full-container (SLC) cargo will be Wednesday, February 19 by 11:00 am. Temperature-controlled service will be available.

For shipments originating in Juneau:

Cargo cutoff for Less-than-container (LCL) and Breakbulk will be Friday, February 21 by noon. Full-container (SLC) cargo will need to be received Monday, February 24 by 5:00 pm.

Please contact our customer service department or your sales representative with specific questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Alaska Marine Lines
