Hurricane Olivia Update

Dear Valued Customer:

The U.S. Coast Guard has issued a closure to the Honolulu port due to Hurricane Olivia effective Tuesday, September 11 and Wednesday, September 12. This will delay the arrival of our voyage H8367W. After the storm has passed and access to the port has been restored, we will plan on receiving the barge and discharging cargo. We are hoping to have access to cargo from this voyage starting Saturday, September 15.

As the path of Hurricane Olivia develops its movement over the Hawaiian Islands we will be sending further updates for service issues impacting the inter-island shipments. Should you have additional questions, please contact our customer service department or your sales representative.

Sincerely,

Aloha Marine Lines
